

NOMAN HELD FOR MURDER OF LAWYER

Contention That Divorced Wife of John Stokes Fired the Fatal Shot.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Nov. 28.—Agnes Stokes, divorced wife of John Stokes, was arrested here Thursday on a charge of murder. She was with her former husband several days ago when the second Mrs. Stokes, who has instituted divorce proceedings, appeared at the house with a lawyer to take an inventory.

The lawyer, Donald Shlig, was shot dead. Stokes was arrested accused of the shooting, but after investigation the prosecutor concluded that Stokes could not have fired the shot, and a charge was preferred against the former Mrs. Stokes today. The charge against Stokes has not been withdrawn.

GOOD MORNING YOUR HONOR

In the absence of Judge Farabaugh, City Clerk Billings presided in police court Friday morning and gave two sentences.

Charles Vincelli, of Laporte, who alleged he came to South Bend on business, was given a suspended sentence of $1 and costs. Vincelli strolled into the police station on a search for his money for whiskey. He was released on probation for three weeks and if at the end of that time he has not given his wife and family proper support he will be turned over to the grand jury.

Joseph Pajak, 417 S. Scott st., went out with a bunch of men and came home Wednesday night and found his wife and child in the wrong house. When his involuntary host woke up and found Pajak asleep on the couch he called the police. Pajak got $1 and costs.

John Karmalinski, father of five children, refused to support them and his wife, giving as a reason that he was a drinking man. He was released on probation for three weeks and if at the end of that time he has not given his wife and family proper support he will be turned over to the grand jury.

Peter Kotomo, 2234 S. Chapin st., and Joseph Hordach, were arraigned in police station Friday morning and found guilty of breaking scarlet fever quarantine. The men were found drunk on the streets last week.

Neighbors made the report and testified against the men Friday. A sentence of $10 and costs was given them and the fine of $110 was suspended; however, the men will have to pay the cost.

CELEBRATE THANKSGIVING. Thanksgiving was celebrated by the Holy Name society with a social session at the parish hall, N. Hill st. Thursday night. Cards, boxing, music and a Dutch lunch were the social features of the evening, supplemented by an address by Rev. Father Carroll on the purpose of the society and how the largest profits from it are available.

MUNCIE POST DIES. MUNCIE, Ind., Nov. 28.—Mrs. J. P. H. Koons, post and widely known newspaper and magazine writer, died suddenly Friday, age seventy.

CHURCH RAISES $45,000 IN DAY

Practically $45,000 was raised Thanksgiving day by the special committee of the First M. E. church to meet the deficit of $50,000 made by the erection of the $125,000 church on N. Main st. and it is believed that by Saturday night the entire sum will be raised.

Twenty-eight teams of five men each loaded into automobiles and at 5 o'clock Thursday morning began a canvass of the members of the church, going to every part of the city and in some cases several miles into the country.

Several large donors as well as a number of smaller ones remain to be seen, as they were out of the city. According to the pastor, Rev. Henry L. Davis, the day's work was the greatest he ever saw accomplished as it is believed that more money was raised by the scheme, than was ever raised in one day by any single organization in the city.

The donors who were visited and gave Wednesday night and Thursday are: J. C. Bowsher, D. D. Bowsher, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Campbell, Mrs. Clara L. Wyman, C. F. Adv. BLEASE FREES CONVICTS. South Carolina Governor Releases Many Murderers on Parole.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 28.—One hundred convicts at the state penitentiary and on chain gangs throughout the state were released by Gov. Blease. The number includes 26 convicted of murder and 26 convicted of manslaughter. One man was granted full pardon, another's sentence was commuted and the others were paroled during good behavior. Gov. Blease in a statement said the convicts were granted clemency "that they might eat their Thanksgiving dinners at home with their loved ones."

This is the largest number liberated in any single day by the governor, who, since coming into the executive chair, nearly 900 pardons, paroles and commutations. Last Thanksgiving Gov. Blease paroled 75.
